A collection of 20 empty rectangular boxes arranged in a grid-like pattern, intended for a matching exercise. The boxes are organized into four rows and five columns. Each box is a simple rectangle with a thin black border and no internal content. The boxes are distributed across the page as follows:
Row 1: 5 boxes
Row 2: 5 boxes
Row 3: 5 boxes
Row 4: 5 boxes
This layout provides a structured space for students to write or draw their answers for the matching exercise.
